Alex Ickes

The United Way of Greater Stark County is pleased to welcome Alex Ickes as the Director of Major & Legacy Gifts. Alex has a passion for building strong relationships and using his skill set to better the lives of others. Having worked in higher education and other not for profit organizations, Alex is well equipped to navigate the needs of our community.

Alex stated, "I am elated to be working with such a fantastic group of great individuals who have a passion for community and people living united. In my role, I look forward to personally getting to know each advocate and supporter and helping to assist in reaching their philanthropic goals. May we all come together and make a strong and meaningful impact in our community."

Welcome Alex to the United Way of Greater Stark County and please feel free to reach out to him through his contact information below:
